

Antarctic Logistics Blue Ribbon Panel
Friday 20 April 2012 meeting, NSF, Arlington, VA
Agenda (version of 19 April 2012)

The meeting will take place in the NSF Board Room (Room 1235). The meeting is open to the public except during 4:00-5:00 pm, when the Blue Ribbon Panel will be in closed session. Small conference rooms will be available for the break-out sessions.

Friday, April 20, 2012

Time	Topic
8:00 AM	Coffee
8:30 AM	Welcome; review agenda; official statements (Augustine and NSF)
8:45 AM	Port Hueneme site visit recap and recommendations (Augustine and Swift)
9:15 AM	Discussion of the process of assessing logistics when reviewing science projects (Borg)
9:45 AM	Discussion of how report might address logistics support of new, complex major science projects (Ducklow, Hartill)
10:00 AM	Discussion of how report might address U.S. Antarctic policy matters
10:30 AM	Break
10:45 AM	Begin first break-out session
11:30 AM	Second break-out session
12:15 PM	Working lunch (purchase on your own)
1:15 PM	Resume plenary session - Discussion of principal BRP recommendations and findings. Discussion of each section by "lead writer" and overall BRP.
3:15 PM	Break
3:30 PM	Continue Plenary Discussion
4:00 PM	Begin closed session Discussion of IDA results (Augustine, LaFratta, and Arnold)
5:00 PM	Adjourn

Please arrive early to have your laptop scrubbed on the 3rd floor if you will use your laptop.