

Information and Resource Management Update

Advisory Committee for Business and Operations
November 17, 2011

This time last year...

Now...

CAMPAIGN to CUT WASTE

As part of the Campaign to Cut Waste, President Obama signs an executive order to reduce spending on travel and end the purchase of promotional items -- and speaks to four finalists for this year's SAVE Award.

- Reduce spending on travel
- Limit information technology devices
- Reduce conference costs
- Stop unnecessary printing of documents
- Stop purchase of promotional items

Overall spending...reduced by 20 percent

Government Executive

Super Committee Stumbles Two Weeks Before Deadline

Despite an eventful week of trading offers within President Obama's 12-member "supercommittee," reported breakthroughs have since been downplayed, indicating that the bipartisan panel is stalling yet again with just two weeks before its Nov. 23 deadline.

TOPICS

NEWS HEADLINES

PAY AND BENEFITS

Budget expert forecasts more financial woes for the federal government

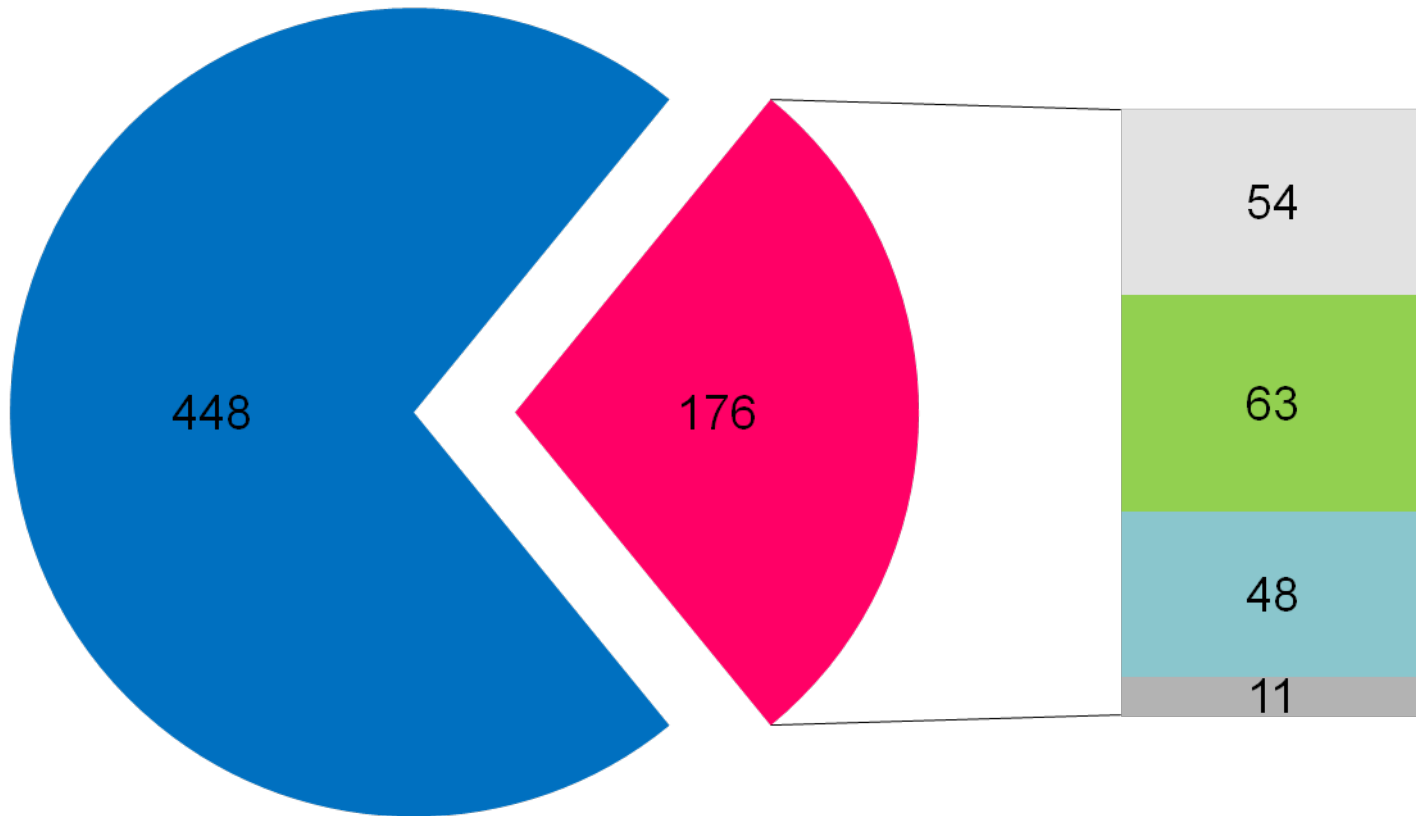

Maximize Return On Investment

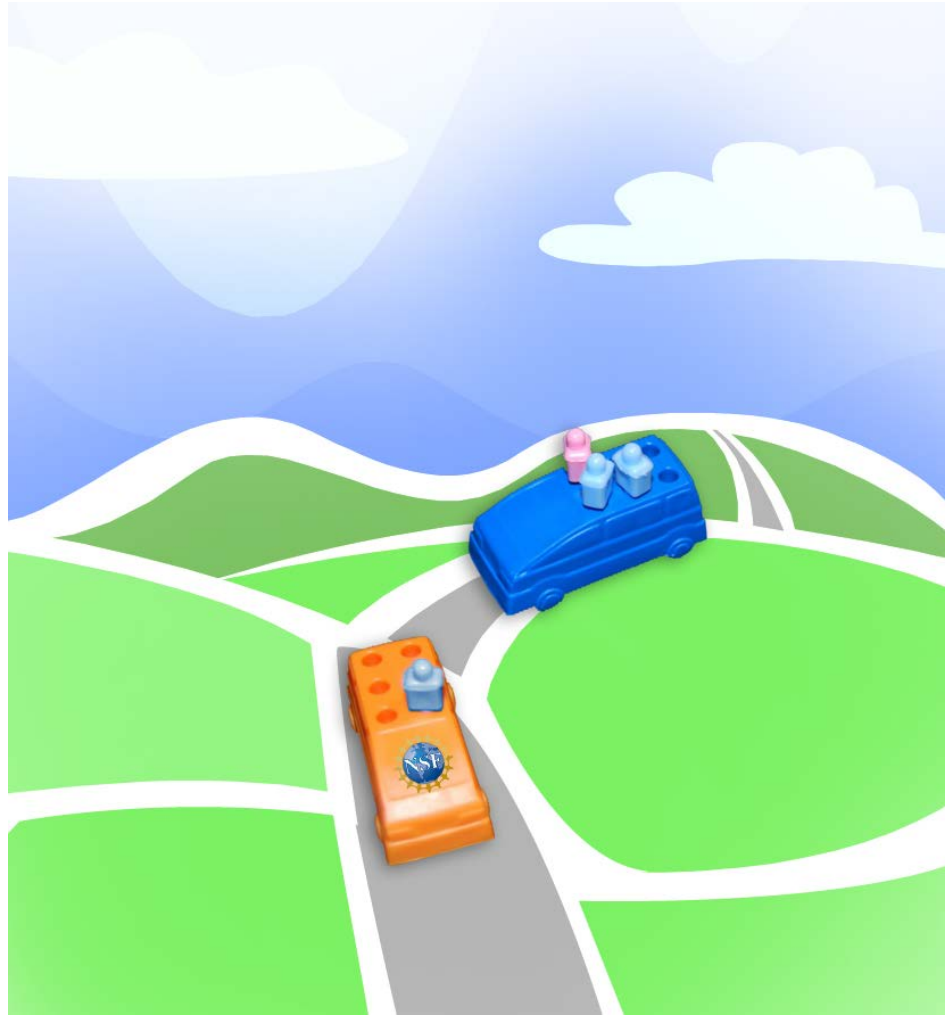

Strengthen Contract Oversight

■ Contractors ■ Staff ■ DAS ■ DIS ■ HRM ■ FO

Strengthen Project Management

Efficiency Initiatives

